Review: American Hoax by Charles Firth | pages et cetera

I'm not sure on whom Charles Firth is playing the hoax on: the reader or the American public. Perhaps both but it really doesn't matter; American Hoax is a highly original and funny take on the American marketplace of ideas and everyone who's trying to make their stamp on it.

Charles Firth (comedian) - Wikipedia

American Hoax was released in November 2006. [5] Firth went to Adelaide in July 2007 to present at the Festival of Ideas with fellow Chaser Julian Morrow , where his performance included asking the audience to SMS their questions to him, throwing lollies to the audience, and "defacing" three Wikipedia articles.
