Angel in the Rubble by Genelle Guzman-McMillan
Angel in the Rubble is a fascinating and horrifying first person account of being trapped in the collapsed North Tower. While we were watching events play out live on TV, by this authors account, there was a terrible amount of dithering going on in the Tower buildings as employees had little idea of what was happening, and therefore little idea of how to react. Guzman-McMillan's descriptions

Guzman-McMillan recounts her story of survival and salvation in Angel in the Rubble: the Miraculous Rescue of 9/11's Last Survivor, released last month by Simon & Schuster. Within the space of 240 pages, the Trinidadian native shares how she and her co-workers started to flee their office in the 110-story building and how she paused on the 13th floor to remove her high-heels. It was then, Guzman-McMillan says, that her whole world literally came crashing down and her life changed forever.
