Review A book of heart-stopping beauty. D.R. MacDonald is an exceptional writer. Alistair MacLeod Cape Breton Road tells the story of Innis, a young man deported from his home in the United States for car theft and returned to his mother's birthplace on Cape Breton Island to stay with his uncle Starr.

Cape Breton Road by D.R. MacDonald - Goodreads Cape Breton Road is a first novel by D. R. MacDonald, obviously a new writer to me. This is the story of a kid gone wrong, let out of prison, and sent to his family on Cape Breton. He is angry and a druggie, two things that would be a problem for his uncle if he cared. The uncle is not anyone I would want to know. Good story: love, angst, escape—all the exciting stuff.
