Dead Bad Things by Gary McMahon - Goodreads
Gary McMahon's Dead Bad Things is the second of his Thomas Usher novels (following on from Pretty Little Dead Things). Thomas Usher is a man who can see the dead, following an accident in which his family died. As such, he is known to the Leeds police force for his ability to help them, although Usher views his power as a curse rather than a blessing.

Dead Bad Things by Gary McMahon This Is Horror
Dead Bad Things by Gary McMahon Publisher: Angry Robot Paperback (331pp) Trevor Pumpkiss is a bastard. A murdering, child-raping, bastard to be exact. He is also a superbly realised, complex and nuanced character, one of many that feature in this second novel-length outing for Thomas Usher. His continual use of the term friend is genuinely creepy and on finishing a chapter featuring him
Dead Bad Things by Gary McMahon - Penguin Random House

Praise Dead Bad Things is a fierce and primal supernatural novel. Brutalist horror writer Gary McMahon has succeeded not only in gestating further the furtive world he seeded in its prequel, Pretty Little Dead Things, but has also excelled in exuding a sense of menace and threat rarely seen in paranormal fiction. -Spooky Reads
