Death in Summer is a novel written by William Trevor, first published in 1998 by Viking Press. Plot summary. Death in Summer revolves around Thaddeus Davenant, whose young wife, Lenitia Iveson, was killed in a freak accident on a bicycle. Lenitia leaves behind their six-month-old baby girl Georgina; her mother, Mrs Iveson, advises Thaddeus to employ a child minder. One of those interviewed is Pettie, a girl who was brought up in a foster home abused by a sinister "Sunday uncle". She grows Death in Summer by William Trevor - Goodreads Trevor's Death in Summer is a well-written but odd story to which I found myself somewhat indifferent. Set in contemporary rural England, the tale revolves around two young people who run away from a corrupt institution for homeless children. The Morning Star.

William Trevor: Death in Summer The Mookse and the Gripes

I was completely engrossed in Death in Summer (1998), shocked, as usual, at how much Trevor is able to put into even the smallest sentence, how completely he enters into his characters heads as we watch them suffer tragedies both large and small.

Trevor's "Death in Summer" is a well-written but odd story to which I found myself somewhat indifferent. Set in contemporary rural England, the outset of the tale revolves around two young people released into the world, recently discharged from a kind of asylum for young people, The Morning Star.

Death in Summer book by William Trevor - Thriftbooks

Death in Summer is one of the more appropriate titles for a novel I've seen in a while. William Trevor is a gifted writer, one of characteristic styles that are fascinating, illuminating, yet with a dark view of the world that begs for light.

Death In Summer : William Trevor : 9780140287820

"William Trevor is an extraordinarily mellifluous writer, seemingly incapable of composing an ungraceful sentence. . . . His skill is very real, and equals his great compassion. With Death in Summer, these two qualities combine in a beautiful and resonant way."--The New York Time Book Review
