Mounting Fears: Amazon.ca: Stuart Woods: Books Mounting Fears I have read almost all of Stuart Woods' books but this will be my last. The book has a good plot line but he never carries out the plot. It relies on knowing about previous book too much and you cannot understand this book without a knowledge of previous books. Also it just sets itself up so that you will read the next book since there are no conclusions to the book. On top of

Mounting Fears (Will Lee Series #7) by Stuart Woods

My problem with MOUNTING FEARS, and the reason for four stars, is that the ending appeared to be rushed, cut off in order to meet a deadline. All of the subplots were very good, and deserved to be better developed. Writing three books a year, even for a master like Stuart Woods, is a very daunting task. Writing three excellent books even more so.
