I felt "Pride" lacked all the components that would make a friendship based book sizzle. The introductory chapter left reader trying to comprehend the character of the book.

Lorene Cary should have introduced the characters individually before throwing them all together like gumbo at the wedding. Not even the added conflict between Roz and Tam could of saved this book. I was doomed from the Pride Month: Cary Grant and Randolph Scott A Hollywood ...

They were two handsome bachelors, who happened to be Hollywood heartthrobs and roommates. Cary Grant and Randolph Scott lived together off-and-on for nearly 12 years, sharing a Santa Monica beach house and a mansion in Los Angeles Los Feliz neighbourhood.
