These Old Shades - Wikipedia

These Old Shades was itself originally intended to be a sequel to Heyer's first novel The Black Moth, which would redeem the devilish Belmanoir. But as The Black Moth was a melodrama and a sequel per se would not work in with the plot, she decided to make the new novel stand alone.

GEORGETTE HEYER These Old Shades This Age I grant (and grant with pride). Is varied, rich, eventful: But if you touch its weaker side, Deplorably resentful: Belaud it, and it takes your praise With air of calm conviction: Condemn it, and at once you raise A storm of contradiction. Whereas with these old shades of mine, Their ways and dress delight me; And should I trip by word or line
